

Student Poster Presentations Scheduled for the 2019 Annual Symposium

The Student Poster Session will be Thursday, March 28
from 5:30-6:30 pm in the Embassy Room.

Cyberstalking, Harassment, and Bullying: Characteristics of Perpetrators of Online Abuse

Cristina Aarestad Aakre, M.A. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

Academic Dishonesty is a Predictor of Criminal Behavior

Jess M. Berger, M.S. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

Racial Bias, Threat Perception and Fatal Police Shootings

Godhuli Bhattacharya, B.A. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

Cognitive Patterns of Social Information Processing in School Shooters

Jessica Cardinalli, B.A. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph. D.

Mental Health Stigma Among Law Enforcement and How It Impacts Suicidality: A Comprehensive Survey of the Literature and Critical Analysis.

Nicole Cuadro, MA and Dr. Megan O'Banion

The Correlation between Childhood Victimization and the Development of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder in People with Autism Spectrum Disorder

Jeffrey Duong, M.A. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

Differential Impact on Witnessing Community Violence Vs. Intimate Partner Violence

Jessica Gil, M.S. and Tom Kennedy, PhD.

Common Variables of Female False Confession Cases

Jessica Gil, M.S., Ana Alberti, M.A., Danielle Millen, B.A., Tom Kennedy, PhD., Carlye Conte, M.S.

Effectiveness of Reunification Therapy

Anna Grejtakova, M.A. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

“My Culture Made Me Do It”: Risk Factors in the Expression of Psychopathic Traits in Two Diverse Cultures

Demi Kourtesi, B.A. and Dr. Gaithri Fernando

Social, Economic and Geographic Factors Affecting Spatial Patterns of Criminal Behavior and Decision-Making

Mortimer Scott LeCote, III, MA and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

INCELS, Misogyny, and Mass Violence

Benjamin I. Long, M.Div., Sierra N. Lynch, M.S.Ed., Gabrielle Loehr, B.A., Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

The Association Between DSM Diagnoses and Suicidal Ideation and Behavior in Juvenile Delinquents

Katherine McEnroe, M.S., Jamie Bedics, Ph.D. ABPP, Jennifer Twyford, Ph.D.

Adult and Juvenile Sex Offender Assessment and Treatment:
A Resource for Taiwanese Populations

Meagan Mckenna, M.A., Emily Padilla, Sheri Dilone

A Lack of Effective Risk Assessment Tools to Predict Self-Harm in Correctional Settings

Courtney L. Norris, B.A. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

Neurofeedback Training: A Potential Treatment for the Forensic Psychiatric Population

Meera Patel, M. Ed., J. David Effler, Ph.D., Mark Tichon, Ph.D.

Capital Punishment and The Influence of Racial Biases Against African Americans Carlos Taylor, M.S. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

The Influence of Poly-Victimization on Criminal Behavior in Female Adolescents

Sheila Turner, M.S. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

The Interaction of Neuromaturation and Trauma-Based Brain Changes on Adolescent Decision Making and Risky Behavior Leading to Crime

Sheila Turner, M.S. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.

Reducing Recidivism by Treating Traumatic Brain Injury in Sexual Offenders, Including Aggression, Thus Reducing Recidivism Rates

Michelle L. Woods, M.S. and Kristine M. Jacquin, Ph.D.